

BRENNAN

Address | Phone Number | Email | Portfolio

Professional Summary

Computer science student that is passionate about programming and solving complex problems with computers. I focus on scalability and efficiency to ensure the software I work on is stable and fast.

Education

Oregon State University (2025-Present)

- Currently pursuing a Computer Science degree

Rappahannock Community College and Chesapeake Bay Governor's School (2022-2025)

- Career Studies Certificate in STEM at Work
 - Uniform Certificate of General Studies
-

Research

How Environment Density Affects Pathfinding Efficiency

- Two-year-long research project as part of the Chesapeake Bay Governor's School
 - Tested multiple pathfinding algorithms under varying environment densities.
 - Won an award at the symposium that was held at Virginia Commonwealth University.
-

Skills

Languages: C++, C#, Rust, Python, Java, SQL, GLSL, HLSL, TypeScript, HTML, CSS

Tools: Git, Linux, Unity

Frameworks: MySQL, SpacetimeDB, React, Tailwind, Firebase

Projects

Check the portfolio page.